C F G7 C
San - ta's brought the Kr - am - pus and he's in your neigh - bor - hood.

Additional Verses:

3. Connor quite congested, such a strong smell he did sniff,
"Why that's a festive pot-pur-ri!" so he's out to have a whiff,
But what he thought was frankincense and what he thought was myrrh
Was actually the fires of Hell and the stench of the sulfur.

4. So lend an ear dear listener, and a warning take by me,
If you think you hear a "Ho! Ho! Ho!" and you go out to see
I hope that you've been well-behaved in your holiday revelry,
'Cause you might find out that it's Saint Nick with a squad of devilry!
